

Time for Asbjorn

Sometimes we need time

Sometimes we have time

And sometimes we are out of time

Asbjorn was one of a kind:

Always on time

Always with time

Always ahead of his time

What are we like?

Always need time to see

Always with no time to feel

Sometimes don't understand that there must be time for everything

Time is what defines quality of life

Time is what defines quality of friends

Time is what defines friends for life

Asbjorn had time for us

We are proud to be part of his time

And we are sorry to be out of time to share more time with him.
